Volunteer for the Graduate School of Medicine

As part of the Graduate School of Medicine, the Medical students studying at UOW are required to take part in the OSCE, a large-scale Clinical Examination involving patient volunteers, consisting of role-play scenarios and some physical examination (non-invasive).

Student Volunteers are required to undertake training (approx 2 hours) prior to the examination.

Dates:

Summative Phase 2 (3\textsuperscript{rd} year medicine students)
Saturday 4\textsuperscript{th} June 2011: 8am – 5.30pm

Summative Phase 3 (4\textsuperscript{th} year medicine students)
Saturday 18\textsuperscript{th} June 2011: 8am – 5.30pm

Both Phases
Wednesday 6\textsuperscript{th} July 2011: afternoon

Training will be held at the University of Wollongong (Building 28) on 25\textsuperscript{th} April at 2pm.

Venue:
All examinations are held at the GSM, Building 28, at UOW.

Extra Info:
Lunch and refreshments are supplied.

Students with a close relationship to any of the medical students in that Phase will not be able to participate. No medical advice is given during the OSCE’s or training. All information about the OSCE is of a highly confidential nature, due to the importance of the OSCE examinations in the curriculum.
