Relationships Australia, Illawarra Region has been selected by the Department of Families, Housing, Community Services and Indigenous Affairs (FaHCSIA) to run a photographic competition as part of the “Think Family Think Community” Government initiative. This initiative aligns with the aims of the Family Support Program which focuses on supporting young Australians to take part and be active in their community.

The competition is open to all youth aged 12-24 years and is aimed at promoting positive relationships between young people, their families and their communities.

Photographs should be images that best represent family and community to the young person. This may vary for each entrant. Examples are: family members, sporting or hobby groups, animals etc.

Competition Rules

Images must be the creation of the entrant.

Each entrant must have the written authorisation from all persons in their image which states the person/s have consented to the photograph being displayed publicly at the Community Access Gallery and/or in future Relationships Australia promotional material. This authorisation does not need to be sent into Relationships Australia with your image, however, if requested you will be required to produce the consent. The images will be displayed at the Community Gallery (Wollongong Art Gallery) for a period of two weeks from 11th May 2011.

All images must be received by Relationships Australia by the date and time as stated on the brochure & application form.

The judge’s decision will be final.

Any inappropriate images will be prohibited from the competition.

All images must have entrants full name on the back and contact details on the application form. Entrant can only enter into one category only.

On completion of the photographic competition, Relationships Australia NSW (RA NSW) would like to use the photographs for educational and promotional purposes relevant to the work of Relationships Australia. The potential use of the photographs may include media, presentations, newsletters, brochures, or internet use (without limitation). The photographs will remain the property of Relationships Australia NSW. By entering the competition the photographer/owner has indicated their approval for ongoing use of the photographs by RA NSW and will not receive any royalties for their use.

Disclaimer: I agree to follow the above rules of the competition.
